

A Look at the House Republican “No Jobs” Calendar: Halfway Through the Year And Still No Jobs Bills Brought to the Floor

House Republicans argue that they have been “laser focused” on jobs but after six months in the majority, Republicans have not brought a single jobs bill to the Floor. Here’s a look at what they have pursued since taking the majority—a divisive agenda that has not lived up to the Republican pledge that job creation would be a top priority:

Democrats, on the other hand, have been focused on the Make It In America agenda, a plan to support job creation by providing an encouraging environment for businesses to innovate and make products here in the U.S., which will help American families Make It In America. Republicans claim they are going to focus on jobs this summer—Democrats hope that they finally back up their rhetoric with action and work with us to create jobs, grow the economy and enact a plan to reduce the deficit.
